

VETERANS' SERVICE RECOGNITION BOOK

Volume Nine

Premier's Message

On behalf of the Province of Nova Scotia, I would like to thank our Nova Scotia Legion members, military personnel and their families for the enormous contributions and sacrifices they have made, and continue to make, for our great country.

Nova Scotia has always had a strong tradition of supporting Canada's fighting men and women.

The province is proud of the women and men who serve - and who have served - in the Canadian Armed Forces. I want to extend our heartfelt appreciation for the contributions they make abroad and at home with their families, in communities throughout Nova Scotia.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Darrell E. Dexter". The signature is written in a cursive style.

Darrell E. Dexter, Q.C., M.L.A.
Premier

President's Message

Comrades,

It is a great honour for me to welcome you to the ninth edition of our Veterans' Service Recognition Book. This book recognizes our Veterans, the men and women, who served our great country, Canada, in war and peacetime. This book will be distributed to all schools and libraries in our Command, thus creating an invaluable source of reference for future generations.

I wish to thank all those Branches and individuals who helped with this special project by sending in submissions of Veterans in their community.

I wish to personally express my sincere thanks to Comrade Steve Wessel who has dedicated himself to this project from Volume 1 to Volume 9 and is an example of service to our Veterans above and beyond!

In comradeship,

Ronald T. Trowsdale
President
Nova Scotia/Nunavut Command
The Royal Canadian Legion

Better Hearing Begins With US!

Capturing all of life's most challenging soundscapes

auto StereoZoom

Capturing a single voice in a noisy crowd. Automatically.

Noise is the greatest challenge for speech intelligibility. auto StereoZoom zooms in on a single voice in a noisy environment, improving speech intelligibility for effortless hearing.

Speech in Wind

The conversation must go on! Even on a windy day!

The ability to hear speech in windy conditions has always posed a challenge to any hearing aid. Now Speech in Wind detects and reduces wind noise and streams speech to the side most affected by the wind, making voices clearer while improving comfort.

auto ZoomControl

Automatically focusing on the clearest speech source.

auto ZoomControl harnesses the power of Binaural VoiceStream Technology® to automatically track and focus on speech, regardless of the direction, enabling understanding

Do you have hearing loss? Take this quiz.

- Does your spouse/family think the TV or radio volume is too loud?
- Do you have trouble hearing on the phone?
- Do you often ask people to repeat themselves?
- Do you feel you can hear people but sometimes can't understand them?
- Are you missing key words while having a conversation in a crowded restaurant or at family gatherings?
- Do you have ringing in the ears or other head noises (buzzing, crickets, hissing, etc..)?

If you answered yes to any of the above, you may have hearing loss.

Project Chairman's Message

As Chairman of this important Legion project, it is truly an honour to present Volume 9 of our Veterans' Service Recognition Book on behalf of the Executive Council and membership of Nova Scotia/Nunavut Command of The Royal Canadian Legion.

These books are produced in an effort to honour and remember the lives and deeds of our Veterans and even after 9 volumes, the Legion branches of The R.C.L. as well as the general public continue to support this publication by contributing biographies and photos as well as through their generous support through donations and advertising. If you would like to send us info on a relative of yours please use the pull-out application form at the back of this book.

Copies of this series of books are sent to all public and school libraries across Nova Scotia and can also be accessed on our Legion website at www.ns.legion.ca. The books are recognized as a valuable tool in keeping the spirit of Remembrance alive in the hearts and minds of our youth and the general public.

I would like to extend our sincere thanks to Fenety Marketing for their continuing support in the production of these books and together with NS/NU Command we look forward to issuing our 10th anniversary edition in the fall of 2014.

In Comradeship,

Steve Wessel
Project Chairman

Soldier to Soldier

The uniform insignia and the battle equipment may have been different, yet the reason for being there was the same. One soldier fought and sacrificed life and limb so that peace may be protected and regained, the other soldier stood to bring a coffee, a writing pad, the essentials of hope and peace in the chaos of war. One soldier went to the front to face the worst of the worst, the other came as close as possible to serve those who served their country. With great admiration for those who fell, and for those who came back, The Salvation Army salutes and gives thanks for freedom gained at such a price. As an international movement The Salvation Army is honoured to serve "Soldier To Soldier".

HRM Call Centre 490-4000

Congratulations to the Nova Scotia Nunavut Command of The Royal Canadian Legion

On behalf of the seniors living in care at Braeside and Duncan MacMillan, their families, the Boards of Directors, Staff and Volunteers, we would like to recognize the men and women who make up the membership of our local Legions in Zone 15.

Each of these long term care facilities is supported by the generous programs and services actively pursued by the following branches:

- # 58 Courcellette, Sheet Harbour
- # 120 Four Harbours, Tangier
- # 147 Valley, Upper Musquodoboit

The men and women of these branches provide services to Veterans and their families, in particular, Senior and Veterans Services focusing on health care, social activities, medical support and information.

Thank you to all the Veterans and their families for the sacrifices that you have made so that each and every generation coming after you enjoy a life lived in peace and freedom.

We will not forget.

EVERYDAY IS REMEMBRANCE DAY

'Twas the night before Christmas, he lived all alone,
In a one bedroom house of plaster and stone.
I had come down the chimney with presents to give,
And to see just who in this home did live.
I looked all about, a strange sight to see,
No tinsel, no presents, not even a tree.

No stocking by mantle, just boots filled with sand,
On the wall hung pictures of far distant lands.
With Medals and Badges, awards of all kinds,
A sober thought came through my mind.
For this house was different, it was dark and dreary,
I found the home of a soldier, once I could see clearly.

The soldier lay sleeping, silent, alone,
Curled up on the floor in this one bedroom home.
The face was so gentle, the room in disorder,
Not how I pictured a Canadian Soldier.
Who was this hero of whom I'd just read,
Curled up on a poncho, the floor for a bed?

I realized the families that I saw this night,
Owed their lives to these soldiers who were willing to fight.
Soon 'round the world, the children would play,
And grownups would celebrate a bright Christmas Day.
They all enjoyed freedom each month of the year,
Because of the soldiers, like the one lying here.

I couldn't help wonder how many lay alone,
On a cold Christmas Eve, in a land far from home.
The very thought brought a tear to my eye,
I dropped to my knees and started to cry.
The soldier awakened and I heard a rough voice,
"Santa, don't cry, this life is my choice".

I fight for my freedom, I don't ask for more,
My life is my God, my Country, My Corps.
The soldier rolled over and drifted to sleep
I couldn't control it, I continued to weep.
I kept watch for hours, so silent and still,
And we both shivered from the cold night's chill.

I didn't want to leave on that cold, dark night,
This Guardian of Honour, so willing to fight.
Then the soldier rolled over, with a voice soft and pure,
Whispered, "Carry on Santa, It's Christmas Day, All is Secure".
One look at my watch, and I knew he was right,
"Merry Christmas my friend, and to all a Good Night".
