

Peace Poem
Cooper Freeman
Grade 4

Peace looks like two black fluffy puppies lying with a big white dog that's their mom in a big cozy bed. Peace looks like colourful leaves falling from a big oak tree with lots of people playing under it .

Peace sounds like birds singing and rain falling on to a metal roof from the sky.

Peace feels like warm sand in between your toes on a hot Saturday morning on the beach on a summers day.

Peace taste like fresh home made baked apple pie.

Peace smells like a big vanilla cake getting made at the bakery.

Peace to everyone!
